Wedding Ceremonies at the Victoria Hotel

The Victoria Hotel is an approved premises for civil wedding ceremonies in Anglesey, and you can be married here irrespective of your home address. As soon as you have worked out a suitable date you should speak to the Superintendent Registrar on telephone number 01248 752564 to confirm that the registrar is available and agree a ceremony time.

You should then contact your local Register Office, the one covering the area where you live, and arrange for you and your partner to give Notice of Marriage. You must reside in a district for at least seven days before giving notice, and you must apply in person. If you both live in different districts, each of you has to give notice in your own district.

Documents Required for Notice of Marriage

- Passport, Birth Certificate and another document showing your address
- If you are divorced, your Decree Absolute bearing the courts original stamp
- If you are widowed, the death certificate of your original spouse
- If you have formally changed your name by Deed Poll or Statutory Declaration document
- The current fee

The marriage can take place within 12 months of giving notice after a clear period of 15 days has elapsed. Your local Register Office will provide you with an Authority to be Married - and inform the Llangefni Register Office. Llangefni will then send a letter confirming your booked date and time, and invite you to arrange an appointment to visit them to discuss the form of the ceremony.

The Ceremony

You are welcome to enhance the ceremony with a range of readings and music. The Registrar can also conduct the ceremony in Welsh, English or bilingual.

The Victoria Hotel will charge £150 to cover the cost of the ceremony room, tailor made to your special requirements - this is in addition to the Registrars fees.

The information contained on this sheet is for guidance purposes only. The Register Office reviews the terms and conditions on a regular basis and we would always recommend speaking directly to the Superintendent Registrar if you do plan to hold a civil ceremony.
